Q: How to capture click event when clicking on image and load it into canvas? I have problem with image capture clicking. I'm using that code: `$('.trailerIcon').on('click', function () { $('canvas').load(getImageData()); }); function getImageData() { var canvas = document.createElement('canvas'); canvas.width = 320; canvas.height = 240; var ctx = canvas.getContext('2d'); ctx.drawImage(canvas_image, 0, 0); return canvas.toDataURL(); } In background image is loaded from canvas_image and should be showing on screen. But I click on canvas image, image not showing, only background. How can I change the code, to be able to click on image and load it from canvas? A: You can use click to add event handler on image and then use load to set image in canvas. Sample code is as below $('img').click(function() { $('canvas').load(getImageData(), function() { $("#myCanvas").show(); $("#myCanvas").hide(); $("#myCanvas").attr("width", 320); $("#myCanvas").attr("height", 240); }); }); function getImageData() { var canvas = document.createElement('canvas'); canvas.width = 320; canvas.height = 240; var ctx = canvas.getContext('2d'); ctx.drawImage(canvas_image, 0, 0); return canvas.toDataURL(); } body { padding: 60px; } canvas { display: none; }`

Traitor (band) Traitor is a heavy metal band founded by former Absu members. The core band of the group is the one formed in 2004 by former Absu members "Machine" Gary Stonum (guitars), "Saviour" Richard Snaith (vocals), and "Dust" Keith Ballinger (drums). The additional band members are "Traitor" Jonny "Stryker" Lawless (guitars), "Juggernaut" Craig "Brutal" Huxley (guitars), and "Progenie" Bruce Fitzhugh (bass guitar). Traitor was formed in Leeds and toured the United Kingdom in 2004, released a number of demo albums, and in early 2007 started recording their debut album. Biography Musical career Traitor was formed in 2004 by former Absu members Machine Gary Stonum (guitars), "Saviour" Richard Snaith (vocals), and "Dust" Keith Ballinger (drums). The other members, Jonny Lawless (guitars), Craig Huxley (guitars), and Bruce Fitzhugh (bass guitar), were not original Absu members and did not join until after the band had already split in late 2003. (Lawless was not a member of Absu; Huxley and Fitzhugh had played together in a band named Disgrace and were in the band's demo. Fitzhugh also played with the Leeds-based death metal band King Piss.) In the early days, Traitor's musical style was death metal, and their live shows, bookings, and demo recordings reflected this. In late 2005, Traitor signed to a new record label, Scarlet Records, founded by Absu and Kreator guitarist Jon Nödtveidt. At this time, the band members realized that there would be a need for a singer since they had all been playing drums previously. In a video chat on absu.com on 15 December 2005, Traitor frontman Richard Snaith proposed that a friend of his, Alex Venom, join the band. Venom had previously been in a thrash metal band called Secrets of the Moon. At first, Venom was hesitant about joining because he did not want to change his musical style. However, after singing a couple of songs with Traitor, he ended up playing lead vocals for almost all of the songs that they recorded, regardless
